GOVERNOR HEALEY ESTABLISHES COMPETITIVENESS COUNCIL TO GROW ECONOMY, STRENGTHEN BUSINESS CLIMATE

One SouthCoast Chamber is honored to be selected as a member of Governor Healey's Competitiveness Council, joining key business and civic leaders from across the Commonwealth. While Massachusetts faces significant challenges in areas like healthcare costs, housing affordability, and energy prices, we're encouraged by the Governor's proactive approach to strengthening our business climate and economic competitiveness. As the voice of the South Coast business community, we look forward to contributing to solutions that will help make our region and state a more affordable and attractive place to live, work, and grow a business.

Press release from The Office of Governor Maura T. Healey:

Governor Maura Healey signed an Executive Order creating the Governor's Advisory Council on Competitiveness to advise her on ways to drive economic growth and strengthen the state's business climate.

Governor Healey appointed Dan Kenary, President & Co-Founder of the Harpoon Brewery, and Mark Nunnally, Chairman of Toolbox Holdings and Foundation and former Managing Director of Bain Capital, as Chairs of the Competitiveness Council.

The Competitiveness Council will advise the Governor on issues relating to taxation, business incentives, workforce development, support of innovation, business regulation, and other related factors that affect Massachusetts' economic competitiveness. They will also offer recommendations on potential actions to strengthen the state's business climate and support growth in existing and emerging industries. They will also assess the impacts of federal policies related to research, education immigration and free trade.

"Massachusetts is home to the best businesses, schools, health care system and talent in the world, but we can't take anything for granted," said Governor Healey. "I'm creating this Competitiveness Council to bring everyone to the table – business, labor, state and local leaders – to advise me on action we can take to grow Massachusetts' economic leadership and make us more competitive."

"Massachusetts has the talent, research institutions, and entrepreneurial spirit to compete with any region in the world," said Economic Development Secretary Eric Paley. "This council reflects the Governor's commitment to growing our economy by listening to the people who know it best—our business leaders, workers, and innovators—and by bringing together voices from across the Commonwealth to ensure Massachusetts remains the best place to start, scale, and succeed."

"Massachusetts is known as a hub of innovation, talent and entrepreneurship. By working together, we can build on those strengths, grow our economic competitiveness, and make sure our state is a great place to start and grow a business," said Dan Kenary, President & Co-Founder of the Harpoon Brewery. "I'm grateful to Governor Healey for appointing me to this important role, and I look forward to getting to work with the Competitiveness Council."

"At every step, Massachusetts has always been ready to adapt, change and invest in its future. Governor Healey is continuing this tradition in a world that is changing faster than ever," said Mark Nunnally, Chairman of Toolbox Holdings and Foundation and former Managing Director of Bain Capital. "I'm honored to serve as Co-Chair of her Competitiveness Council, which will bring together a talented group of leaders to make sure we are building that strong future and bolstering our economic competitiveness."

Since day one, Governor Healey has prioritized making Massachusetts more affordable and growing its economic competitiveness. In her first year in office, she cut taxes for the first in 20 years. Since she took office, more than 90,000 new housing units have been built or are in development to help lower housing costs. She has introduced legislation to save residents and businesses more than $13 billion on energy costs, proposed a $400 million state investment to grow Massachusetts' research and development sector and create jobs in the face of Trump's cuts and taken action to limit health care costs.

Other members of the Competitiveness Council will be:

- Economic Development Secretary Eric Paley, or their designee;
- Administration and Finance Secretary Matt Gorzkowicz, or their designee;
- Labor and Workforce Development Secretary Lauren Jones, or their designee;
- 2 members of the House of Representatives designated by the Speaker of the House;
- 2 members of the Senate designated by the Senate President;
- a person designated by the Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce;
- a person designated by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce;
- a person designated by the Merrimack Valley Chamber of Commerce;
- a person designated by One SouthCoast Chamber;

- and such additional members as the Governor may appoint from geographic areas across the state who reflect a diversity of perspectives and backgrounds, including representatives from regional chambers of commerce, business trade groups, organized labor, and policy think tanks.

Sincerely,

Mike O'Sullivan

IT'S A WRAP!

The 20th Annual Blount Fine Foods New Bedford Seaport Chowder Festival brought flavor and fun to the waterfront.

The Southcoast was alive with excitement as the 20th Annual Blount Fine Foods New Bedford Seaport Chowder Festival returned to City Pier 3, celebrating two decades of community, competition, and, of course, chowder!

From savory seafood creations to hearty soups and chilis, attendees enjoyed delicious offerings from some of the region's favorite restaurants while soaking up the sunshine and waterfront views. The day was made even more memorable with live music from Be Kind, Rewind: The Authentic Tribute to '90s Alternative, filling the harbor with upbeat energy and nostalgia.

The Chamber extends its sincere appreciation to everyone who made this year's event possible. A heartfelt thank you goes out to our Title Sponsor, Blount Fine Foods, and Lead Sponsor, Cape Air/Nantucket Airlines, for their support and partnership.

We are also deeply grateful to all our event sponsors and partners, including Southcoast Health, BayCoast Bank, Elegant Restrooms, Rockland Trust, BankFive, Bristol County Savings Bank, NBCU, People Incorporated, Rua Dumont Audet Insurance, Somerset Federal Credit Union, Isaksen Solar, Pioneer Basement Waterproofing, BJ's Wholesale Club, Capitol Waste, Colonial Beverage, New Bedford Port Authority, City of New Bedford, Pier Fish, Poyant Signs, RI Novelty, Southeastern Regional Transit Authority (SRTA), Stop & Shop, Cox Media, FUN 107/WBSM, WPRI, WCTK/Hall Communications, ABC Tent, New England Showtime Productions, and MAK Electric LLC.

We want to thank the incredible restaurants and vendors who brought their talent and creativity to the waterfront, The Black Whale, Cove Surf and Turf, Magic Kitchen, Merrill's on the Waterfront, Pine House Kitchen & Bar, Quahog Republic Whaler's Tavern, Sixes & Sevens, Smashed NB, Turk's Seafood, Moby Dick Brewing Co., and The Cocktail Guru for helping make this year's Chowderfest a culinary highlight.

Additional thanks go to our production and service partners, Frogs Videography, Juli Art Photography, Advance Career Services, ABC Tent, Global Learning Charter Public School, and Greater New Bedford Regional Vocational Technical High School, as well as all of the dedicated volunteers, parking attendants, and Chamber staff who worked tirelessly to ensure everything ran smoothly.

Cape Air has announced new passenger service between New Bedford Regional Airport and Logan International Airport in Boston.

Residents of the Southeastern Massachusetts region will have direct air access to Logan International Airport without having to battle Boston-area road congestion and high parking rates.

In addition, local passengers will be able to pass through TSA security checkpoints in New Bedford, rather than in Boston, making it easy to connect to domestic and international flights departing from Logan.

The 35-minute gate-to-gate flights from New Bedford to Boston are scheduled to depart daily at 8:15 a.m. and 2 p.m., with return flights from Boston scheduled for 1 p.m. and 6:40 p.m. The new flights are scheduled to begin on Sept. 29, 2025, and passengers can purchase tickets starting today on Cape Air's website, www.CapeAir.com.
